Wisconsin's Largest Studio Glass Event Hosted by Waukesha Art Gallery River's End Gallery Holds Glass Artist Reception on February 11

Waukesha, WI, December 19, 2011 – The River's End Gallery announced today an exciting new exhibit of more than twenty major Midwest glass artists. The exhibit opens with an artist reception on Saturday, February 11, 2012 and runs through March 31, 2012. This is the fourth annual event featuring outstanding studio glass artists all brought together in one venue.

The exhibit, Isn't It Romantic, Art Glass Extravaganza, opens with a by invitation only artist reception on February 11 at 4 p.m. – 9 p.m. To attend this event guests must register in advance with the gallery to receive a free ticket. The gallery will feature a reception, music, and of course wonderful glass art.

“What an outstanding way to put winter out of our minds,” says, Joan Skimmons, owner of River's End Gallery in Waukesha. “These studio glass artists being exhibited are some of the best in the United States. The gallery is very lovely and is conducive to an elegant evening out.”

The exhibit begins with a “by invitation only” artist reception on
